MASS CONVENTION CALL.

The Democrats of Benton County are hereby called to meet in mass convention at the court-house in the town of Camden on Wednesday, June 29, 1892, at 12 o'clock, to appoint delegates to the floterial convention to be called in the future to nominate a candidate for floater for this the sixteenth floterial district, composed of the counties of Benton, Decatur, and Henry, and to transact such other business as should legally come before it.

S. L. PEELER,

Floterial Committeeman.

CAMDEN, June 16, 1892.

HARRISON was nominated on a Friday. This fact of itself is calculated to have a bad effect on the superstitious minds of Puritan New England.

FROM all appearances it looks like the Republican aid society, the third party, is not destined to be a howling success in this part of the moral vineyard. Democrats understand the situation.

Now for Chicago. The work of the Minneapolis convention has greatly simplified the work of the Chicago convention. All the Democrats have got to do next week is to name a good ticket and victory is assured.

THE announcement from Washington that Secretary ELKINS is the bearer of a message from the President to CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW stating his desire for him to accept the portfolio of Secretary of State has created comment among Republicans at the national capitol.

How long will the people of the Northwest and the South submit to the overbearance of New York politicians in national politics? CLEVELAND is clearly the choice of the masses of his party, and it would be an act of political suicide for the convention to turn a deaf ear to the voice of the people and nominate HILL, who will try to play dictator in the Chicago convention.

COL. L. L. POLK, president of the National Farmers' Alliance, died at Garfield Hospital, Washington, last Saturday. Colonel POLK was a native of North Carolina, and was 55 years old. At the time of his death he was serving his term as president of the Alliance, and had he survived, the probability is he would have been nominated for President or Vice-President by the People's party, which meets in convention at Omaha June 28.

THERE may be a few dissatisfied men in this county who are drifting into the Republican camp via the third party movement, but they are men who have never been identified with the Democratic party. We are glad to see them get on one side of the fence or the other, and they will be held in higher esteem when they come out openly and declare their allegiance to either one or the other of the two American parties. There can be no middle ground, understand. It is Democracy or Republicanism. It is the people's party against plutocracy. Under which flag are you?

HISTORY will record the fact that JAMES B. BLAINE has fallen a victim to his own tricks. Had he not written that letter to CLARKSON last February, he could have had the Republican nomination for President. The most surprising thing of it all is that while his lieutenants were steadfast in their efforts to defeat HARRISON in the convention, the Plumed Knight committed another of the fatal mistakes for which his career has been noted by resigning from the cabinet. It is a scheme of revenge, postponed from June until November. The situation is truly encouraging to Democrats.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat, one of the most influential Republican dailies in the West says: The nomination of WHITELAW REID for Vice-President is a blunder of a peculiarly serious and senseless kind. It is a concession to the BLAINE faction in the party which ought not to have been made under any circumstances. The antagonism of the labor element to Mr. REID is pronounced and bitter, and ought to have been taken into consideration by the delegates. There are many BLAINE men who would have been unobjectionable from any point of view. Some of them would have strengthened the ticket very materially. Mr. REID decidedly and emphatically weakens the national ticket.

IT is the prevailing opinion now that the declaration of the Republican convention at Minneapolis in favor of bayonets at the polls and the applause which greeted such declarations from the lips of young Mr. FASSETT and TOM REED mean thousands of votes for the Democratic ticket if a strong declaration is made at Chicago against federal interference in State affairs—votes which might have been lost to the third party if the Republican convention had taken a more liberal attitude. The right of the citizen of the State to go to the polls to regulate his local affairs without the shadow of federal bayonets or the clubs of deputy marshals appointed by a great central power to overawe will be strongly set forth in the Democratic platform in a ringing denunciation of the force bill.

"HARRISON will lose California," is what the people from that section are saying since the Minneapolis convention. The President gets little credit for signing the Chinese exclusion bill, because the people of the Pacific slope believe he did it grudgingly and had no share in the work of pushing the bill. The Democrats will lay stress upon the fact that the exclusion act was introduced in its strongest form by Congressman GARY, a Democrat, and was weakened by a Republican Senate. The attitude of the two parties to the Chinese question will be made a test question in California, where the President disappointed Republicans, who were eager to do him honor, by the chilly way in which he declined their courtesies and his seeming indifference to them when on his trip to the Pacific coast last autumn.

Interesting Items of Local and Personal Gossip From Rural Districts.

From Fairview.

Regular correspondence.]

The weather continues hot, and everybody is in a fine humor.

Miss Katie Beaton, who has been sick for some time, has so far recovered as to be up.

The farmers are about through planting corn, and are sowing a crop of stock peas. Crops are looking nice.

Last Sunday was children's day at New Hope church. The morning being bright and clear, at an early hour groups of people could be seen wending their way toward the church. After Sunday school was over, and while a song was being sung, the house was filled with eager spectators. Rev. Mr. Wells opened the services by reading a portion of scripture, which was followed with a prayer by the pastor and the Lord's prayer in concert. Then followed responsive reading in concert of the history of children's day, its benefit and use, and responsive reading of the children's class. Memory recitations by Ardelia Cooper, Sofa Matheny, Tena Shoening, Willie Shoening, Fredina Barnes, Elbert Shoening, Minnie Barnes, Clara Pierce, Andrew Beaton, Job Cooper, Troy Barnes, and Mollie Matheny, were well rendered. The closing address was made by the pastor, and expressions of thanks were made by W. L. McKenzie, T. W. Cooper, J. P. Cooper, William Piece, and Leonard Greer. The whole was interspersed with music. It was pronounced a grand success by all present.

FAIRVIEW, June 13.

From Holladay.

Regular correspondence.]

The oat crop is very fine through this section of the county.

Mr. C. A. Holladay, of Huntingdon, spent Friday and Saturday with relatives and friends at this place.

Miss Minnie Hilliard, of Carroll County, visited relatives at Holladay last week, returning home Saturday.

We are glad to learn that after several weeks of confinement to his room that Mr. Press Hatley is getting so he will soon be out again.

Rev. J. J. Lessenberry, of Coxburgh, delivered a very interesting sermon at the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Sunday morning.

From present indications the entertainments at the closing exercises of the Holladay Independent Normal are going to be the most successful of any of the previous ones held here.

Of course the Democrats of this section are jubilant of their prospects for political victory this year. They think with Cleveland an Old Pete against Harrison and Winstead they will have almost a walk-over.

HOLLADAY, June 14.

From Eva.

Regular correspondence.]

Mr. J. J. Weatherly is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. Mollie Hamer is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Weatherly.

Miss Willie Lashlee visited the family of Mr. W. L. McElyea last Sunday.

Mr. J. F. McKelvey brought the first ripe peaches of the season to this market last Saturday.

Uncle Billy Watkins, of Carroll County, aged 75 years, is visiting his niece, Mrs. T. J. Lowry.

Farms in this vicinity are needing rain. If we have good seasons from now until August we will have the largest corn crop grown for several years. An unusually large acreage has been planted.

LUTERTON, June 13.

Mortgage Sale of Real Estate.

By virtue of the power given in a mortgage executed to me on November 9th, 1889, by J. J. McCauley and wife, S. J. McCauley, and registered in book DD, page 116 in the register's office of Benton County, Tennessee, I will sell to the highest bidder, on the premises, on the following described real estate situated in District No. 9, Range 9, Section 8, of Benton County, Tennessee, being the lands purchased by J. T. Nolan of one Deane, the deed to which is registered in deed book M, page 297, register's office of said county, and is a part of a tract containing 580 acres formerly owned by Joseph Askew and the same that was allotted to said Mrs. Johnnie McCauley in the case of John J. McCauley vs. Nolan et als. in the chancery court of Montgomery County, Tennessee, at its October term 1888, and contains 420 acres.

Thursday, June 30th, 1892, at 11 O'Clock, a. m.,

TERMS—Cash, free from all rights of homestead and exemption, and the title of purchaser to be absolute.

This June 1, 1892.

DR. SAMUEL A. MARABLE,
Mortgagee.

A. R. GHOLSON, Attorney. 53

CHANCERY SALE OF LAND.

A. H. Howe vs. Irvine Smith et als.

In obedience to a decree of the chancery court at Camden, made in the above styled cause, I will, on Monday the 1st day of August, 1892, at noon, at the court-house door in the town of Camden, sell to the highest and best bidder, subject to the homestead and dower rights of defendant, Mary Smith, the tract of land in said decree described, situated in the fourteenth civil district of Benton County, Tennessee, known as the John J. Smith farm, and containing by estimation 191 1/2 acres. Said sale will be on a credit of 12 months, except 15 per cent., which shall be paid cash. Notes, drawing interest from day of sale with approved security will be required of the purchaser and a lien will be retained on the property sold as further security.

June 14, 1892. TOM C. RYE,

By GUY HALL, Clerk and Master.

Deputy Clerk and Master. 73

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND.

By virtue of authority in me vested by a deed of trust executed on the 13th day of November, 1890, by E. J. Mitchell, A. E. Hawley, and D. A. Henning, which instrument was duly recorded in the register's office of Benton County, Tennessee, in the town of Camden, on the 15th day of November, 1890, in trust deed book DD, page 296, I will on the 2nd Day of July, 1892,

in front of the east door of the court-house in Camden, Tenn., within lawful hours, sell to the highest bidder for cash, free from the equity of redemption or repurchase, also homestead and dower, all of which are expressly waived in the deed of trust, a certain lot of land containing about 102 1/2 acres, lying and being in the tenth civil district of Benton County, Tennessee, and is bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake in the center of the road leading from Camden to Reynoldsburg, 20 poles east of the northwest corner of the 80-acre tract, (A. Jorky land), and runs with said road south 45 degrees, west 14 poles to a stake in the center of a small creek, with two sweetgums and red oak pointers, thence down said creek with its meanderings about 80 degrees east 14 poles, thence south 44 poles, to a stake in the middle of said creek on the S. B. of said 80 acres tract, thence east with said line 40 poles to the southeast corner of said 80 acres tract, thence north with the E. B. of the same 40 poles, to a Spaulshook with two white pointers, thence east 68 poles to a white oak and red oak pointers, thence west 126 poles to a stake with white oak and dogwood pointers in the S. B. of the Hollandworth land, thence west 68 poles with its N. B. line 54 poles, in all 122 poles to the beginning. It being the same conveyed to Albert Hawley by deed of R. M. Hawley on the 13th day of December, 1890, and recorded in the register's office in Camden, Tenn., in book H, pages 885 and 886. Said land will be sold to satisfy a debt for $115.00 in favor of S. T. Myrick, secured by said deed of trust with interest and all costs of this sale. I will make a deed to buyer. The interest of E. J. Mitchell and A. E. Hawley only will be sold under this trust.

S. T. MYRICK,

This May 30, 1892. [53] Trustee.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE.

In the Circuit Court at Camden, Tenn.

L. P. Marchbanks vs. J. R. Marchbanks.

Petition for Divorce.

In this cause it appears to the clerk from the petition filed herein, which is sworn to, that the defendant, J. R. Marchbanks, is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee and is a resident of the State of Illinois, so that ordinary process of law can not be served on him. It is, therefore, ordered by the clerk that the said J. R. Marchbanks enter his appearance in this cause on or before the second Monday in August, 1892, and make defense to complainant's petition herein, by which she asks to have the bonds of matrimony between herself and the said J. R. Marchbanks dissolved and alimony allowed her out of lands of defendant, or the same will be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte as to him.
